The Itineraries

Le Dieci 'Castella'

In the hilly landscape, ten small mediaeval villages all characterized by unique view, charming narrow streets and porches.

Collodi

The Pinocchio theme park also hosts art exhibitions dedicated to literature for children, creative workshops and puppet. Villa Garzoni and the Butterfly House are also worth a visit. They are only about 5 kms away from the Le Fontanacce.

Montecarlo

Very well preserved mediaeval village, still surrounded by its unique walls, is located in an isolated hill in the Lucca area. Renowned for its high quality wines, it is one of the stops along the so called "Tuscan roads of wine and oil".

Montecatini Terme

Known for its marvellous spa baths and the Liberty style that permeates the whole town, Montecatini is located in a unique valley full of olive trees and flowers. Its thermal water is used for body treatments and therapy.

Monsummano Terme

The thermal cave Giusti is a downright paradise corner rich of limestone concretions where you can find a pool of natural thermal water releasing a therapeutic steam. There is also an outdoor thermal pool that can be used during winter, if you look for a little bit of deserved relax.

Zoo di Pistoia

You can find more than 400 animals from all over the world. It is distinguished by the laboratory of biodiversity where you can understand and meet natural life.

Nice location where to stay if you want to visit:

Lucca and Versilia, Florence, Pisa

How to Reach us

From the highway A11 (Florence-Seaside) take the exit in Chiesina Uzzanese and follow for Pescia. When you reach Pescia, at the roundabout nearby the supermarket "Esselunga", keep the right and continue along the tree lined road that borders the stream Pesca. When you reach the fourth traffic light turn right and pass the monumental church "san Francesco". Then turn left in Via Nieri and follow the directions for Malocchio. After about 2 Km you will find the Agriturismo Le Fontanacce.

The Agriturismo Le Fontanacce extends for about 8 hectares in the hills that surround the mediaeval town of Pescia, in the province of Pistoia. It is located in the north west part of Tuscany, in an area which is still untouched, full of history, surrounded by centuries old trees, where it is possible to have some deserved relax. From the agriturismo Le Fontanacce you can enjoy a unique and breathtaking view over the valley where the stream Pesca flows, the valley which is better known to everybody as Valleriana. The Genevan historian and economist Giancarlo Sismondi renamed it "Svizzera Pesciatina" for the enchanting beauty of its hills and landscape.
